

LIBERAL ARTS

Drawing on nearly 100 years of the Mount's excellence in teaching, the Liberal Arts major is an experience that challenges students to explore intellectual interests and talents with the support of community on campus and beyond. Faculty scholars from a variety of disciplines guide students as they mature into broadly educated writers, speakers, and life-long learners prepared to embrace the diverse opportunities of 21st century life, work, and service. Our graduates are rooted in the past, engaged with the present, and empowered to thrive in the future. Students take classes in history, literature, philosophy, and religious studies, as well as the introductory course, Foundations of the Liberal Arts, three interdisciplinary seminars, and a culminating class in which they work with faculty on a final project.

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE

Cooperative education or Service Learning opportunities enable students to gain professional experience and to work with diverse populations, broadening the scope of their classroom learning.

LIBERAL ARTS MAJOR, CONCENTRATIONS, MINORS

- Liberal Arts Major
- Liberal Arts: English—Studying English is an act of discovery, creativity, empathy, and tradition.
- Liberal Arts: History—Through this major, students have the opportunity to widely explore the past.
- Liberal Arts: Philosophy—Coursework helps students tackle difficult but important questions, such as "What's the meaning of life?"
- Liberal Arts: Religious Studies—Students explore what it is to be human and how to build the common good by engaging with religious traditions.
- Liberal Arts: Theatre—This concentration emboldens creativity, awareness, and technical skills to implement artistic choices.
