If you answered "yes" to either of these two questions, please forward relevant information on this matter to the Dean of Admission.

Criminal background checks may be required to determine eligibility for admission into some programs and/or field placement, practicum or clinical assignments. Some misdemeanor offenses may justify the denial of admission into a licensure program or access to practicum or clinical assignments. A record of prior criminal conviction(s) will not necessarily be a bar to admission to the University. The University will take into account such factors as the nature and seriousness of the offense, the age of the offense, and any evidence that the potential student has successfully engaged in efforts to be held accountable or to rehabilitate.

I certify that the information which I have provided is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsification may result in denial of admission or dismissal from Mount St. Joseph University. If I am accepted by Mount St. Joseph University and choose to enroll, I understand that I will be expected to abide by all University rules and regulations.
